Questions

DISCUSSION
In this discussion you will make a total of three posts, one initial post and two reply posts. Please review the information below that details the requirements for this assignment. Be sure to number your response to each question so that your answer corresponds appropriately with the question being asked.

Questions/Scenarios

Initial post lengths may vary a bit. Reply posts should be 100-150 words. When you reply to your colleagues, give them feedback about the responses. For example, what is effective in their definitions? What could be improved? Etc. Always use a respectful tone.

Note: You must make an initial post before you can see what others have posted.

ASSIGNMENT 1
